FRIDAY, MARCH 2

10:00 – 10:30  Welcome coffee (CORE lounge)

10:30 – 10:40  Opening

10:40 – 12:20  1. Kozo Kiyota, Keio University
               Factor Intensity Reversals Redux
               1. Pierre Boyer, CREST, École Polytechnique
               Politically Feasible Reforms of Non-Linear Tax Systems

12:20 – 13:30  Lunch

13:30 – 15:10  1. Motohiro Sato, Hitotsubashi University
               Efficiency and the Taxation of Bank Benefits
               1. Kai Konrad, Max Planck Institute for Tax Law and Public Finance
               Dynamics of the Market for Corporate Tax-avoidance Advice

15:20 – 15:30  Coffee break

15:30 – 17:10  1. Daiji Kawaguchi, Tokyo University
               TBA
               1. Micael Castanheira, ULB, ECARES
               Population Patterns and the Economic Effects of Constitutions
SATURDAY, MARCH 3

09:00 – 10:40

1. Yuukihiro Nishimura, Osaka University
   Enforcement Cooperation and Tax Competition Among Asymmetric Countries

1. Susana Peralta, Nova School of Business and Economics
   An Empirical Evaluation of The Effectiveness of Fiscal Incentives for Corporate Investment in Portugal

10:40 – 11:00

Coffee Break

11:00 – 12:40

1. Hiromi Hara, Japan Women's University and UC Irvine
   Impediments to Further Gender Wage Gap Reduction: A Labor Market System Perspective

1. Nicolas Gravel, Aix-Marseille Université
   Evaluating Education Systems

12:40 – 13:30

Lunch

13:30 – 15:50

1. Johannes Johnen, UCLouvain, CORE
   Browsing versus Studying Offers

1. Takeshi Murooka, Osaka University
   Market Competition and Informal Incentives

Organizing Committee

1. Jean Hindriks, CORE, Université catholique de Louvain

1. Yuukihiro Nishimura, Osaka University

1. Pierre Pestieau, CORE, Université de Liège